Move From Aspirations to Impact with Wishful Doing

Feel more empowered and confident as a leader and re-energize your team. Expand your capacity and watch as your team becomes more united with each other and your mission. Imagine your fatigue and frustration lifting as you make meaningful progress toward your vision.

This isn't wishful thinking. It's possible.

At Wishful Doing, we'll help transform your aspirations into achievements so you can move the needle on the issues you care about most.

We'll help you:

- Know your value and hone your leadership skills.
- Save precious time and resources with the right strategies, systems, people, and resources you need to achieve your goals.
- Strengthen organizational culture for happier, more engaged and connected teams.

OUR SERVICES

The Keys to Turning Ideas into Impact

While many mission-driven leaders have bold ambitions, the ones who make a difference are the ones who can make it happen. And that takes clear strategy, helpful systems, strong leadership, and a courageous community of support.

Wishful Doing provides personalized, comprehensive, and hands-on support with:

Leadership & Team Development

Own your leadership journey and re-energize and motivate your teams with our personalized executive coaching and team development retreats.

Strategy & Organizational Capacity

Step off the hamster wheel and discover what will really help you break through to new levels of impact. We'll help you diagnose what's holding your organization back and clarify a path forward, so you prioritize the right things, at the right time, with the right talent.

Implementation & Technical Assistance

We'll provide ongoing support, from measurement to progress reporting, to help ensure the quality and sustainability of your work for the long-term.
